

WHERE CAN HISTORY TAKE YOU?

There are lots of reasons to enjoy History...

Understanding people and events | Critical thinking
Investigating | Research | Making informed decisions

Did you know there are apprenticeships that utilise these skills?

GET INVESTIGATIVE

JUNIOR JOURNALISTS carry out research and interviews to create engaging stories that are accurate, clear, fair and balanced

PARALEGALS manage data and records, review documents, draft and produce legal documents and carry out research

GET REFLECTIVE AND CRITICAL

JUNIOR MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS provide business advice to public, private and not-for-profit organisations. This usually involves helping them to solve a challenge of some kind, such as how to grow their business

GET LEGAL

CHARTERED LEGAL EXECUTIVES review documents, conduct and apply legal research and negotiate on behalf of clients, representing them in informal and formal proceedings

SOLICITORS obtain relevant facts, undertake legal research, develop and advise on options and strategies as well as negotiating solutions to client issues

Other apprenticeships you might be interested in: Data analyst, Conveyancing Technician, Chartered Surveyor (with more and more coming)