About us

The Employment and Skills Team is made up of qualified Employment Officers.

They have many years experience of helping local people to find work and have lots of knowledge about the local labour market and new job opportunities.

Over the past five years the team has helped 1200 people move into work, training and education.

You will have a named officer who will be the person that usually contacts you, and they will meet you in a public place at a time which suits you.

What we do

Solihull Council's Employment and Skills Team offers a free, impartial service to help local people find work.

It's not always easy to find a job, or even to know where to start looking. The Employment and Skills Team is unique in offering an individual service which offers as much, or as little support as you need, and can adapt to your changing circumstances.

We offer lots of practical support to help you find a job more quickly, but can also provide mentoring and coaching sessions to inspire and motivate you to set your own goals and think about your long term career pathway.
